October 25th, 2012

Buehler Alumni Center
ARG Room, UC Davis
6pm Reception
7pm Lecture
8pm Discussion Panel

Although Sikhs have been present in the United States since the turn of the twentieth century, the recent tragic shooting at a Sikh gurdwara in Oak Creek, Wisconsin, has brought them into the national spotlight. The lecture and discussion will examine these events in light of Sikh history in the United States and South Asia.

Co-sponsored by:

Asian American Studies, History, Jewish studies, UC Davis Humanities and the UC Davis School of Law.
