The Spiritual Practice that Begins with "Dear," Rev. Beth Banks, Aug 22, 7-8:30pm. Written thanks is meaningful for the writer and for the recipient. Over time, it changes how you see those around you. An avid letter writer once said to Beth, "Writing a letter can't help but leave us a little bit transformed." Beth shares her 30-year spiritual practice: writing messages of appreciation + a touch of theology. ♦ Bring a favorite pen or use one of ours; bring your own notepaper or use our attractive but simple cards: the focus is the message. Bring 6 stamps. Notes will be sent immediately.
