Out & About: Rev. Beth Banks: In January, I'm working with the Stewardship Team, Board, Generosity Project, and Program Council. You'll see me as a Visiting Steward, leading worship, at The Celebration of Abraham event on Sunday, January 27.

The Generosity Project Team (Matt Seelke, Carol Corbett, Alex Haider-Winnett, Sarah Keith, Aimee Crawford, and I) will be talking with some people in the congregation about the concept of generosity. The questions will be similar to these: "When did you first experience generosity?" "How did your family talk about money or model being generous to others?" Everything our group is reading shows us that living with generosity creates connection and belonging. There will be more for us to share later in the year.

See you at church and in the community, too!
